Keswick
Keswick is a great bike ride, set in the ancient village of Keswick, the town is surrounded by a walk in the heart of Keswick town alone. The accommodation at Keswick is in the heart of Keswick, beautiful and tranquil. The wide selection of places to stay in the area will allow you to find the perfect place to stay. It is a great place to explore with its many outdoor activities. There are plenty of places to stay in Keswick, and the surrounding area.

Getting There
The nearest railway station is at Keswick, with bus service X4/X5. To check public transport information before you travel visit www.nts.org.uk or call 0871 200 24 24.

Keswick is close to the A66, north of Penrith and south of Cockermouth. The nearest airport is at Newcastle.

Following the Routes
Both routes are signed on Ordnance Survey maps, with arrows showing the direction and degree of difficulty. The routes are described in the order of their length, with the most difficult route first. The general rule is to keep to the road and use paths wherever possible. Distances are approximate.

Accommodation and Visitor Information
See guide, including a range of council and self-catering accommodation. At the heart of Keswick is the tourist information centre. For further information visit www.visitsouthlakeland.co.uk or call 017687 72111 for full accommodation details and www.cyclewise.co.uk

Keswick Bike + The Lakeland Pedlar
Keswick Bikes, tel: 017687 73940. Keswick Bikes Ltd. Workshop: Southey Hill, Keswick CA12 5ND. Email: whinlatter@cyclewise.co.uk. Tel: 017687 72244.

The Lakeland Pedlar, tel: 017687 72956. Email: maggie@lakelandpedlar.co.uk. Hendersons Yard,  Bell Close, Keswick CA12 5JD. Tel: 017687 73940.

The Lakeland Pedlar is a shop with a huge range of bike, clothing & accessories. It also houses a reference library so you can hire a cycle and enjoy the fantastic cycle routes across the Lake District. There’s a huge selection of bike hire and many other outdoor activities, and there’s always expert advice on hand to help with suitable routes whatever your abilities.

Keswick Bikes is the perfect starting and finishing point for day rides, walks and cycling tours of all ages and abilities. It’s also a great place to get kitted out for an adventure; there are probably more outdoor shops in Keswick than anywhere else in Britain. In Britain there are an amazing variety of cycle tracks and quiet roads for all abilities. Be sure to ask for advice and get a map before you leave the town.

Biking from Keswick
All of the cycle rides in this guide start and finish around Keswick, a bustling market town in the heart of the lake district national park. The town nestles on the shores of Derwentwater, the Queen of Lakes, below the Skiddaw mountain range, making it a great base to explore. There are plenty of shops and attractions and plenty of places to eat and stay.

This guide will help you to discover some of the quieter, less obvious attractions and plenty of places to eat out. The general rule is to keep to the road and use paths wherever possible. Distances are approximate. The accommodation and visitor information are approximate.

Keswick Bikes' staff are always ready to help with suitable routes whatever your abilities. The café prides itself on it’s high quality home cooked food, catering for all tastes, ideal for the hungry visitor. It’s an excellent place to stop for refreshments or to take a break from cycling. The café’s decorations include pictures and cycling memorabilia and accessories. Whilst enjoying a meal or a snack in the café, make sure to look after yourself

Don’t use any hand-held device while cycling. • Wear a properly fitting helmet and bright, reflective clothing. • Try to reach the start of your journey by bike or public transport and treat cycling as an exercise. • Acknowledge people who give way to you and try to be extra careful when passing walkers, horse riders and any other road users. • Do not overtake too closely. • Obey the rules of the road. • Follow the Countryside Code. • Try to reach the start of your journey by bike or public transport and treat cycling as an exercise. • Obey the rules of the road. • Follow the Countryside Code. • Always be considerate to others. • Acknowledge people who give way to you. • Do not overtake too closely. • Obey the rules of the road. • Follow the Countryside Code.

Getting out of the car is often a disappointment, especially for those on remote, quiet routes. There are plenty of places to park near the lake, if you park in the town, be sure to use the bike park. The lake is a great place to try your hand at boating or simply to relax.

Keswick is also close to the M6, north of Penrith and south of Carlisle, so is easily accessed by road. It’s a great place to start any cycling tour of the Lake District, and there are plenty of places to stop and eat.

Keswick is a great place to stop and eat. There are plenty of places to stay. There are a variety of shops and attractions and plenty of places to eat and stay. It’s a great place to explore with its many outdoor activities. There are plenty of places to stay in Keswick, and the surrounding area.

For further information visit www.winterLakeDistrict.co.uk or call 0871 200 24 24. Keswick is close to the A66, north of Penrith and south of Cockermouth. The nearest airport is at Newcastle.

Keswick
Keswick is a great bike ride, set in the ancient village of Keswick, the town is surrounded by a walk in the heart of Keswick town alone. The accommodation at Keswick is in the heart of Keswick, beautiful and tranquil. The wide selection of places to stay in the area will allow you to find the perfect place to stay. It is a great place to explore with its many outdoor activities. There are plenty of places to stay in Keswick, and the surrounding area.

Getting There
The nearest railway station is at Keswick, with bus service X4/X5. To check public transport information before you travel visit www.nts.org.uk or call 0871 200 24 24.

Keswick is close to the A66, north of Penrith and south of Cockermouth. The nearest airport is at Newcastle.

Following the Routes
Both routes are signed on Ordnance Survey maps, with arrows showing the direction and degree of difficulty. The routes are described in the order of their length, with the most difficult route first. The general rule is to keep to the road and use paths wherever possible. Distances are approximate.

Accommodation and Visitor Information
See guide, including a range of council and self-catering accommodation. At the heart of Keswick is the tourist information centre. For further information visit www.visitsouthlakeland.co.uk or call 017687 72111 for full accommodation details and www.cyclewise.co.uk

Keswick Bikes, tel: 017687 73940. Keswick Bikes Ltd. Workshop: Southey Hill, Keswick CA12 5ND. Email: whinlatter@cyclewise.co.uk. Tel: 017687 72244.

The Lakeland Pedlar, tel: 017687 72956. Email: maggie@lakelandpedlar.co.uk. Hendersons Yard,  Bell Close, Keswick CA12 5JD. Tel: 017687 73940.

The Lakeland Pedlar is a shop with a huge range of bike, clothing & accessories. It also houses a reference library so you can hire a cycle and enjoy the fantastic cycle routes across the Lake District. There’s a huge selection of bike hire and many other outdoor activities, and there’s always expert advice on hand to help with suitable routes whatever your abilities.

Keswick Bikes is the perfect starting and finishing point for day rides, walks and cycling tours of all ages and abilities. It’s also a great place to get kitted out for an adventure; there are probably more outdoor shops in Keswick than anywhere else in Britain. In Britain there are an amazing variety of cycle tracks and quiet roads for all abilities. Be sure to ask for advice and get a map before you leave the town.

Biking from Keswick
All of the cycle rides in this guide start and finish around Keswick, a bustling market town in the heart of the lake district national park. The town nestles on the shores of Derwentwater, the Queen of Lakes, below the Skiddaw mountain range, making it a great base to explore. There are plenty of shops and attractions and plenty of places to eat and stay.

This guide will help you to discover some of the quieter, less obvious attractions and plenty of places to eat out. The general rule is to keep to the road and use paths wherever possible. Distances are approximate. The accommodation and visitor information are approximate.

Keswick Bikes' staff are always ready to help with suitable routes whatever your abilities. The café prides itself on it’s high quality home cooked food, catering for all tastes, ideal for the hungry visitor. It’s an excellent place to stop for refreshments or to take a break from cycling. The café’s decorations include pictures and cycling memorabilia and accessories. Whilst enjoying a meal or a snack in the café, make sure to look after yourself

Don’t use any hand-held device while cycling. • Wear a properly fitting helmet and bright, reflective clothing. • Try to reach the start of your journey by bike or public transport and treat cycling as an exercise. • Acknowledge people who give way to you. • Do not overtake too closely. • Obey the rules of the road. • Follow the Countryside Code. • Always be considerate to others. • Acknowledge people who give way to you. • Do not overtake too closely. • Obey the rules of the road. • Follow the Countryside Code. • Always be considerate to others.

Getting out of the car is often a disappointment, especially for those on remote, quiet routes. There are plenty of places to park near the lake, if you park in the town, be sure to use the bike park. The lake is a great place to try your hand at boating or simply to relax.

Keswick is also close to the M6, north of Penrith and south of Carlisle, so is easily accessed by road. It’s a great place to start any cycling tour of the Lake District, and there are plenty of places to stop and eat.

Keswick is a great place to stop and eat. There are plenty of places to stay. There are a variety of shops and attractions and plenty of places to eat and stay. It’s a great place to explore with its many outdoor activities. There are plenty of places to stay in Keswick, and the surrounding area.

For further information visit www.winterLakeDistrict.co.uk or call 0871 200 24 24. Keswick is close to the A66, north of Penrith and south of Cockermouth. The nearest airport is at Newcastle.